Captain Kidder Company Big Keith Vaudeville Act Today, The Cup of Life, 5 Part Mutual Masterpiece Featuring Bessie Barriscale.

One of the finest bills ever seen at this theatre will be the attraction for the first half of this week both in vaudeville and pictures. The vaudeville feature for this bill is called Captain Kidder and Company a delightful operatic comedy in one act with plenty of good singing and a little comedy woven throughout a pretty piot, the scene is laid on the seashore and the company carry all captain Kidder and Company a delightful operatic comedy in one act with plenty of good singing and a little comedy weven throughout a pretty piot, the scene is laid on the seashore and the company carry all their own settings, there are four men and one women in the act, and old fisherman called Captain Kidder, sings to the young folks the tale of Robinson Crusoe, then there are several popular songs introduced which makes one of the prettiest acts of the season, this is another Keith headliner and is a strictly high class vaudeville attraction. The feature picture for Monday and Tuesday is a live part Mutual Masterpicture, produced by Thomas H. Ince, featuring Bessie Barriscale. This great picture gives a graphic portrayal of the lives of two alsters—one who chooses the false atmosphere of material pleasure—the other who is content with the quiet sanctuary of home.

The market motor truck owned by for a fish of 200 pounds; and the gold button for a 400 pounds. Hill and driven by George Casey, was wrecked on East avenue Saturday morning, and James Worrell, foreman on the Griscom estate, was severely injured. Owing to repairs in Beach istreet it was necessary to detour to East avenue on the run to Watch Hill. At a narrow part of the avenue an automobile was fiven to the extreme right of the road.

The car sild off into a low ditch struck a rock and Messrs. Worrell and Casey were thrown out when the auto careemed to one side and partially overturned. Casey escaped injury, but tworrell's nose was laccerated, but not broken and he received other minor injuries. Worrell was taken to the office of Dr. John L. May, where he received treatment.

Bessle Barriscale as the worldly-minded one plays the part with wonderful intestry. The girl's gradual descent from the pinnacle of luxury and ease to the depths of squalid poverty and depravity, the fading of youthful beauty and charm are so true to life that the final scene that "ends her sad, swift, eventful hisbory," comes like a swift and terrific shock.

It is a vivil picture of social contrasts. The butterfly life of the cafes and boulevards, the frothy gayesty and snobbery of selfish pleasure-seekers, in contrast to the simplicity and noblity of the sans and daughters of toil, are most realistically portrayed in a series of pictures, superbly staged and splendidly acted. Albert T. Branch to Ask for Compe sation-Was injured on Fourth by Carelesely Thrown Firecracker

While Albert T. Branch was employ ed as watchman for Bridges & Son. who have the contract for resurfacing the highway between Stonington borough and Pawcatuck, on the night of July Fourth, one of the disorderly celebrators threw a lighted firecracker at Mr. Branch which exploded just as it reached his face and injured one of his eyes very severely, and it may be that the sight will never be restored. Mr. Branch has been in a New London hospital for treatment three weeks. His employers will probably be required to compensate him for the injury and pay the expense of medical and surgical treatment, but they will probably bring sult in damages against the fellow who threw the firecracker. As a precautionary move, Mr. Branch, ough and Pawcatuck, on the night of As a precautionary move, Mr. Branch, accompanied by his uncle, Robert Hale, went to Norwich Saturday and consulted with Dr. James J. We learned to walk at your knee; Shall we formake your need?

Whatever the issue be.

We are ready, oversea:

Proud, and trebly proud, to be part of the Buildog Breed.

Gold and guns shall be sent, horses and men shall bleed,

Food and the ships are here, and a grim and goodly throng.

And the way of the War is clear.
